

Tartu Bingo 2025

Once you have experienced it, mark the square.

You feel that living in Estonia has become expensive	Some cute animal builds a nest in an odd place in the city centre and makes it into the news 	You are pissed off by a reckless driver on a city bike or Bolt scooter 	You are yourself speeding on a city bike or a Bolt scooter	You attend a home match of Tartu's top basketball/volleyball/football team
You eat kringel from Saiapalee Tüümian – at a colleague's birthday or other event 	You visit an exhibition in one of the many Tartu museums and find it accessible and interesting	You imagine just how great it would be to have even more direct flights from and to Tartu 	It's a warm summer evening somewhere in Tartu, you are in good company and everything feels just great	You walk down a super icy road in Tartu and wonder whether to curse or pray
Your parcel got redirected to Ringtee postkontor at the end of the world (or some other strange place) 	Someone politely declines your invitation to visit you in Tartu because it seems difficult to get here	THE TARTU OBSERVER	You have a photoshoot with the colorful autumn leaves at Toome Hill (or elsewhere in Tartu)	A candidate for the local elections tries to revive the idea of the Tartu tram (or something equally improbable)
A big and otherwise international-looking Tartu event forgets to provide information in English	You start to like some newly opened café or pub in Tartu 	One of your favourite cafés or pubs in Tartu closes down 	You take a trip along the Emajõgi river on Suur Sume, the huge new lodi	Reformierakond wins the local elections in Tartu city for the 9th time in a row (or not)
You have a ride on the new electric Elron train to Tartu	You think about relocating to another country/city 	You explain to someone why Tartu/Estonia is a really great place to live	You attend the big laulupidu in Tallinn (and you remember that it is another Estonian thing that started in Tartu!)	You attend a big concert either at Tartu Laululava or near ERM

If by the end of the year you have marked...

Only the corners
You might actually be a Tallinner...

One diagonal
An Erasmus semester well spent :)

Two diagonals
You're taking Tartu seriously!

Full house
You're part of the history of Tartu!